This page may be submitted on a separately typed sheet of paper if desired.

1) Please explain how you have been actively advocating for the LGBT community, or how you have been affected by teen bullying or suicide of LGBT youth. Please include any personal comments, or any activities, or dates of activity that will show your commitment to LGBT issues. For example, "...started a monthly diversity meeting at my school".

Please attach any printed materials, letters of reference, photos or any other materials that you feel will support your demonstration of advocacy to the LGBT youth community. We will review all data in making our selections, but we will not be able to return submissions or attached materials.

Remember: The more detail and thought you put into your scholarship application, the easier it is for the Board to select your application for review.

LIKEME[®]

2) Please describe your most important activities and achievements, including academic honors, community service and other volunteer opportunities outside the LGBT community, extracurricular activities and paid or unpaid work experience.

3) Please describe the challenges you have encountered in your home, school or community because of your actions as an LGBT leader. How have these challenges affected you? How have you chosen to face these difficulties?

4) Please explain your financial need. Are there any extenuating circumstances that will impact your ability to pay for school?

5) Please indicated your intended academic major in college or technical/vocation school. Why are you choosing this particular area of study? If unsure, please describe what interests you plan to explore and why.

6) Please describe the activities in which you plan to participate during you college tenure (i.e. campus/community service, extracurricular activities, paid or unpaid work experience).

7: Please describe your career aspirations after you graduate from college technical/vocation school.

ESSAY:

1) In less than 500 words, please tell us what the idea of LIKE ME means to you? How have you lived this message in your life?

2) In a separate essay (no more than 1000 words, typed and double spaced), please tell us how you have distinguished yourself as a leader on behalf of the LGBT community. What leadership roles have you shown? Describe a situation or project you started, and the results of that effort. What challenges did you come up against in that project? And how the project impacted your community?
